

The Ajmera Transplant Centre 3rd Annual Education and Research Conference

Research Day Conference (Hybrid)

Friday, June 14th, 2024

*On behalf of the Organizing Committee for the Ajmera Transplant Centre's Third Annual Education and Research Conference
Being held in a hybrid format on
Friday, June 14th, 2024*

It is our pleasure to invite you to highlight and display your exciting research by submitting your abstract to us for review. Abstract submissions will be accepted from February 15th – April 12th, 2024 with the final submission deadline of April 12th, 2024 at midnight.

The Ajmera Transplant Centre's Third Annual Education and Research Conference is designed for Physicians, Surgeons, Scientists, Nurses, Nurse practitioners, Physician assistants, Pharmacists, and Allied health professionals interested in the basic science, clinical and research aspects of transplantation at Ajmera Transplant Centre. You can submit your abstract under the BASIC SCIENCE or CLINICAL SCIENCE category.

Top abstracts will be selected for oral presentations to be given during this conference. Prizes will be awarded to the top three Basic science and Clinical science abstracts. There is no limit to the number of submissions of abstracts by a single investigator. The format for the submission of the abstract is enclosed on the next page.

By May 3rd, 2024 all submitters will receive notification of the status of their submitted abstracts for the meeting.

Please email the abstracts to Ashley Ramalho (Ashley.Ramalho@uhn.ca)

Thank you,
